DESIGN COMPETITION

U.S. GREEN BUILDING COUNCIL
IDAHO CHAPTER

Who We Are

The Emerging Professionals are a committee of the USGBC and is composed of young professionals dedicated to becoming and recruiting future leaders of the green building movement.

Emerging Professional groups around the country offer young people the opportunity to get involved in green building locally, gain access to USGBC resources, and participate in local events.

The local Idaho Emerging Professionals (EP) Committee was formed in the fall of 2007 (formerly known as the Emerging Green Builders) and has grown to over forty members during its existence. EP holds a monthly committee meeting and many members actively participate and organize in sustainable education and community involvement.

What We Do

- Annual USGBC Natural Talent Design Competition
- Annual USGBC Eco-House Design Competition
- Host a forum and booth at Greenbuild
- Green Building resources list for jobs / internships
- Education and university programs

The Idaho Emerging Professionals committee has teamed up with Habitat for Humanity, working together to bring intelligently designed beautiful homes to families who are in need. We are hosting a design competition for a future habitat home, available for students and young professionals to participate in. A site has already been selected and the program is finalized. We are now pursuing sponsors to assist us in making this possible.

In order to award the qualifying finalists, the Emerging Professionals are seeking sponsors for monetary donations and/or services. The awards include cash prizes for first, second and third places, with an honorable mention for fourth place.
